TO KEEP UNITED STATES REALLY AMERICAN ISSUE

—COL. THEO. ROOSEVELT

Son Of Former President Broadcasts Hoover Appeal

Manila, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Governor General of the Philippines, said today in a speech urging President Hoover's re-election that to keep the United States American is the issue in the campaign.

"We will fight it out on those lines," he said. "We do not wish our country to be made a laboratory for wholesale experiments in government ownerships, tariff tinkering or currency inflation."

Roosevelt, son of the former President, lifelong Republican and distant cousin of the Democratic candidate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, delivered into a microphone early this morning the first campaign address broadcast from across the seas in American political history.

ECONOMIST'S VIEW

Columbus, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Oscar Fisher, Yale University economist declared in an address here, that President Hoover could "bring us out of the depression quicker than Governor Roosevelt."

Prof. Fisher, addressing the Ohio convention of Building and Loan Associations, said "I am going to vote for President Hoover because he can bring us out of the depression quicker than Governor Roosevelt. I do not mean to talk politics, but I am talking economics."

He urged the restoration and stabilization of the purchasing power of the dollar as a means toward eventual economic recovery.

FROM YOUNG COOLIDGE

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—John Coolidge, son of the former President, today in a letter to Allen I. Seed, Jr., eastern director of the Young Republican League, said that in his opinion present conditions demanded a continuance of the principles of the Republican party.

"It seems to me," he wrote, "that the Young Republican League fills a very important place in paralleling the regular party organization. Its first purpose seems to me to be that of interesting young people in the political campaigns and inducing them to give serious consideration to the various candidates and the issues involved so that they may choose intelligently."

ACTION VS. PROMISES

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Ogden L. Mills, Secretary of the Treasury, speaking before a Republican mass meeting here last night, said the issues of the presidential campaign could be summed up as a choice between "definite and concrete action" on the one hand and "vague and conflicting promises" on the other.

"We now have every assurance that if we hold steadfastly to the course we are now following we shall emerge from these terrible difficulties and hardships," Mr. Mills declared.

"On the other hand," he said, "we face all the uncertainties which change of administration would bring, multiplied by a stubborn refusal to repudiate unsound proposals, or to submit to the judgment of the people a definite program."

He described the President as "one of the most experienced administrators in the world" and said that his defeat "might well prove to be a national calamity of a world tragedy."

Returning to prohibition, Mills declared conditions under the 18th Amendment to be "highly unsatisfactory."

"A majority of the people want a change," he said, "but they are equally determined not to return to the conditions which brought the 18th amendment into being. Our candidate for the Presidency offers a constructive solution that will meet both of these conditions. The Democratic candidate and party propose to return to the conditions which existed prior to the 18th amendment. I do not believe that this will meet with the approval of the American people."

Veterinary, Human Doctors In Session

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Illinois veterinarians were today invited to hold their 1933 conference at the University of Illinois College of Medicine in Chicago.

Dean D. J. Davis of the medical school issued the invitation, which, if accepted, will mark the first time that such a convocation was held.

The union of the veterinary and human medicine fields in the struggle against an increasing number of animal diseases endangering human health was heralded as epochal by President Harry Woodburn Chase of the University, Dean H. W. Mumford of the College of Agriculture, Dean Davis of the College of Medicine, Dean R. R. Lykken of the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State Agriculture College, and D. F. Luckey, Springfield, executive secretary of the Veterinarians Association.

NORRIS IS "BETTER"

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska was "better," his hospital reported today, and he still planned to leave on an afternoon train for Chicago to resume his speech-making for the Democratic ticket.

CONVICT'S CAMP IN FLORIDA WAS SCENE OF REVOLT

Prisoners Working On Highways Demand Investigation

Indiantown, Fla., Oct. 28.—(AP)—According to demands of prison officials, convicts at a state road camp near here filed out of their barracks and returned to work today, ending a strike that kept the camp in turmoil for 24 hours.

Subdued after being kept at bay in a camp enclosure by heavily armed guards, the striking convicts agreed to go back to work until their grievances can be aired at a hearing by prison authorities.

State Prison Inspector Joseph Gates, who was here when the disorders broke out, said an official investigation of the trouble would be conducted next Thursday.

Conflicting Reports

Conflicting reports were circulated as to the cause of the strike, in which 30 or 40 persons participated.

One was that it started after four convicts had been sentenced to solitary confinement in a sweat box for attacking a Negro cook.

Captain C. Musgrave said, however, the four men placed in the sweat box were confined for other offenses and had nothing to do with the attack on the cook, Oscar Lee Jones.

He said four other convicts, who attacked the Negro, had been sentenced to the sweat box for the assault and other prisoners started a protest strike.

Six stitches were taken in the wounds on the back of the cook's head. He was beaten with a piece of wood.

Camp Heavily Guarded

Bonfires blazed about the fenced-in camp and automobile headlights were kept trained on the enclosure throughout the night. One group of guards manned a nearby watch tower while other armed patrols, made up of guards and trustees, kept watch about the prison fence to prevent any possible attempt to escape.

Inspector Gates and Sheriff Marion McGee of Martin county had entered the enclosure unarmed and pleaded with the strikers to go to their quarters and return to work, but the requests were met with stolid resistance. The convicts voiced a demand for a new captain and yard man and criticized the method of camp operation.

Inspector Gates said there were about 55 white convicts at the camp.

Tricked Alleged Confidence Man

Chicago, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Tricked into capture by the Chicago police, a man identified by them as Joseph M. Primakow, was held on suspicion of being one of a trio of men accused by Geo. M. Peck, Elgin banker, of swindling him out of about $35,000 in stocks and bonds. The other two were previously arrested.

Lieutenant John McGinnis of the "confidence game bureau" said he learned that Primakow was living at a fashionable hotel, but was in a quandary as to how to arrest him because there was no evidence upon which a warrant could be obtained. He walked to a telephone, however, and called Primakow's suite. His wife answered the ring.

"This" said the lieutenant, "is a friend of Joe's. Tell him the cops are on the way to pinch him right now. Tell him to get out of Washington to New York."

The Secretary of the Fairmount Park Commission, which was jurisdiction over the Plaza opposite the north side of City Hall, had refused a permit for a Socialist mass meeting there for the reason that he had no authority to issue one for a political meeting.

Daniel F. Martin, the secretary of the Commission for political meeting to be held on the Plaza.

However, an unofficial word was conveyed to the Socialist leaders that if they desired to hold a meeting on the Plaza there probably would be no interference.

Martin said he understood that Mr. Hoover's speech on the Plaza next Monday would be non-political.

Police estimated there were about 2,000 persons gathered in the Plaza when Thomas mounted the band stand at one end of the open area and began to speak. About thirty-five park guards were on duty but they had nothing to do but look and listen.

Thomas Speaks In Philadelphia Park

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Mrs. C. A. Hosper, Girl Scout Executive has been called out of town by the illness of a relative and therefore there will be no rally day picnic for the Girl Scouts Saturday.

DR. OWEN TO COMPTON

Dr. E. B. Dwos, formerly of Dixon, now practicing in the state of Maryland, will take over the practice of Dr. C. G. Poole of Compton during the latter's absence abroad with his son-in-law and daughter Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Hosper.

SEES G. O. P. VICTORY

Attorney John J. Massie of Peru, county chairman of the LaSalle county Republican central committee, was in Dixon today calling on County Judge Leech. Attorney Massie was very optimistic in his report of conditions favoring the entire Republican ticket in LaSalle county.

DIED IN GLENDALE

Mrs. Sarah Breneis, well known to many Dixonites because of her frequent visits with her son and daughter, Harry and Elizabeth Breneis, when the latter lived in Dixon, passed away last evening at her home in Glendale, Calif., friends here learned today. The body will be taken to Cabery, Ill., for burial Monday.

Two other leaders were expected to give themselves up tomorrow.

Princesses Tarhata and Dayang negotiated the surrenders. Princess Tarhata, a graduate of the University of Illinois, is the wife of an outlaw leader now in prison and is arranging for the surrender of another chieftain.

Lieutenant Col. Luther R. Stevens of the constabulary said altogether 56 persons had been killed. Of this number 42 were Moros, including eight women and six children.

14 Naval Planes Trapped By Fog

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Stranded in mid-air for hours by dense fog which swept in suddenly from the ocean and wiped out land marks, aviators of 14 naval planes were safe on the ground today as a result of dramatic rescue and their own daring and skill.

Four planes crashed, one of them bursting into flames, as 12 pilots dived blindly through the fog. But the greatest injury to any of the men was a sprained finger.

The two remaining ships were guided to safety by a transport pilot and 2500 motorists summoned by radio to line the abandoned Kearny airport and transform it with their headlights into a blazing field of light.

COHEN TO BED

Chicago, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Barney Cohen, Director of the State Department of Labor, has been ordered to bed by his physician.

The director, who returned to Chicago yesterday from his office at Springfield, was said by Dr. Edward A. Crown to be suffering from an acute upper respiratory infection.

She Is Alleged Writer Of Letters To Public School Head

BULLETIN

Chicago, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Gussie Kallis, 40, and her husband Herman, were booked today on charges of conspiracy to commit a felony as a result of the bombing of the home of Superintendent of Schools William J. Bogan.

The bombing, police said, was believed prompted by disgruntled merchants opposing operation of lunchrooms at schools. Mrs. Kallis is vice chairman of the Associated Retailers of Chicago, an organization Bogan said was active in the "lunchroom war."

Mrs. Kallis and her husband were held after authorities said they were convinced she was the author of a warning note sent Bogan.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A woman's alleged connection with a campaign of terrorism directed against Superintendent of Schools William J. Bogan and a number of his subordinates was under investigation today.

Held by police was Mrs. Gussie Kallis, 40, vice chairman of the Associated Retailers of Chicago, an organization which, according to Superintendent Bogan, has opposed operation by the school board of lunch rooms for the students.

Police said experts had informed them the handwriting of several threatening notes sent the school officials was identical with that of Mrs. Kallis.

The home of Superintendent Bogan was bombed early last Saturday. A small black powder bomb damaged the porch and front of the house. The bomb, police said, was of a type intended more to frighten than to cause damage.

Mrs. Kallis denied writing the notes which were recently tossed through windows into the home of the Superintendent and several school principals.

Police also questioned Mrs. Kallis' husband, Herman, and Maurice J. Hayes, secretary and business agent of the retailers, and Peter Cribari, his secretary.

New Dixon Corp. Is Given Charter

SAYS FARLEY ASKED FOR CANADIAN FUND

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The Republican National Committee said in a statement today that Democratic Chairman James A. Farley's denial he solicited campaign funds from a Canadian raises a question of veracity between himself and the Montreal Star as well as the Chicago Tribune and other newspapers in the United States.

The committee said that before making public yesterday an item printed in the Montreal Star saying that Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee,

Daughter Of T. R. Joins Fight Against Cousin

On Board the Presidential Train, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A compartment set aside for Alice Roosevelt Longworth, to join the presidential party in Cincinnati today gave Mrs. Hoover promise of a guest further to intensify interest in tonight's big political show in Indianapolis.

Right upon the heels of the pro-Hoover broadcast by her brother, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., from Manila the "Princess Alice" of the early 1900's, accepted the Cincinnati-to-Indianapolis trip on this train, to mark even more clearly the political division line between the Republican and Democratic Roosevelt.

The prospect of Mrs. Longworth's presence on the platform with President and Mrs. Hoover tonight in Indianapolis aroused interest akin to the appearance of her step-mother, Mrs. Edith Kermit Roosevelt, at the notification day ceremony.

A distant cousin to the Democratic candidate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and first cousin to his wife, Alice Roosevelt Longworth long a lover of politics at high pitch, had plenty in prospect as Mrs. Hoover's guest.

She Catches Spirit

With competitive torchlight parades and rival mass meetings promised, the Republican centering on Hoover's address, the Democrats on one by Gov. Ritchie of Maryland, Mrs. Longworth was going to have ample opportunity in Indianapolis to give her Republican cheers in direct contrast to those for her Democratic kin.

Political interest was on the increase as the train sped toward the noon-day stop in Cincinnati. The President and Mrs. Hoover swung into the jolly spirit of it, exchanging pleasantries with station and policies.

As the President stood bareheaded at Athens, O., speaking to the station crowd, Mrs. Hoover handed out his hat to a member of the Secret Service, with a gesture indicating that she emphatically wished it placed upon his head.

All through the President's remarks, she stood back in the car in an open doorway, coming out upon the platform only to share in the final cheer and to receive a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums and a basket of bittersweet. She was smartly costumed in black with gloss white satin lapels and white gloves accentuating the silver of her hair.

Taxpayers' Union Condemns Hughes

The Taxpayers Union of Illinois, S. J. Konopack, President and D. W. McNamee, Secretary, have passed a resolution condemning Edward J. Hughes, former State Senator who is the Democratic nominee for Secretary of State. The Taxpayers Union urges the election of the present incumbent, William J. Stratton, who is the candidate on the Republican ticket.

Because "Senator Hughes has been disclosed as one of the favorites in the Insull companies' stock market pool" and because "he has been exposed as a member of the Senate investigating committee which signed a report, white-washing and hiding the corruption by the Sanitary District Officials who afterwards were convicted and ordered sent to the penitentiary," the Taxpayers Union, in a lengthy resolution, urges that Hughes be defeated and that "as a reward for a spotless and efficient record in public office, we ask every voter to put a cross in the square in front of the name of William J. Stratton for Secretary of State in the Republican column of the official ballot, because a vote for Stratton on November 8 will be a vote for an efficient administration."

His swing into the middle west will be followed almost immediately by an invasion of the big eastern states which are represented by a powerful bloc of voters in the Electoral College.

Then his advisors expect him to turn west again, either to the Mississippi Valley states or to the Pacific coast

THE TORMENT OF THE HUNTED.

W. Kirby Robinson, who surrendered at Leavenworth penitentiary after being a successful fugitive from the law for 34 years, presents one of those odd puzzles in human behavior which seem almost beyond understanding.

Robinson is 65. Thirty-four years ago he robbed a postoffice in Indian Territory and got four-year sentence in the federal prison. He escaped from his guards en route to Leavenworth and got away "clean." Since then he has lived in the far west, a respected member of his community. No one dreamed he was an escaped convict. He was not in the slightest danger of capture.

But—"it's been haunting me," he explained when he surrendered. So he has gone back to serve his time, hoping in that way to lay the ghosts that have made his life uneasy for a third of a century.

A restless conscience can be a very difficult companion. All of us know that, in one degree or another. We may not have mail robberies on our minds, but we have lesser things, and they have power to torment us unmercifully. All too often they are things for which no possible redress can be made, things which can't be wiped off the books by any belated atonement. Even the best of men has certain dark chambers in his mind that he fears to open.

But that wasn't quite all of it, in this case. There was a twin demon to aid in the tormenting—the demon of fear. The man could never be quite sure that the past was really dead. The yellowed files of the federal government still carried his name. He could not be certain that a hand would not be laid on his shoulder, sooner or later. Any day might be his last day of freedom.

And a fear, an uncertainty, of this kind can be life's greatest torment. Most of us never exactly settled in our minds about the things we really want from life, but we do know, always, that we want a sense of security. However humbly we build, we want to know that no sudden blast can knock everything down. And this feeling was one this fugitive never could have.

Is it, after all, any great wonder that he finally gave himself up?

BEER "REAL" AT 3 PER CENT.

When the last Congress was urged to modify the Volstead act to permit the sale of beer of 2.75 per cent alcohol content, a number of ardent wets opposed the move on the ground that such beer would not be "real" beer, and hence would not satisfy the hordes of thirsty. It was suggested that, to be palatable to a devoted beer drinker, the beverage must contain no less than 6 or 7 per cent of alcohol.

Now comes Colonel Jacob Ruppert, formerly one of the country's leading brewers, to explain that the best beer in the old days had an alcoholic content of just 3 per cent.

The proposed 2.75 per cent beer would fall short of that, but not as far short as a lot of people tried to tell us. And even the 3 per cent variety, it is safe to say, would fall below the kicking capacity of most of the needed alkaline beer that get on the market these days.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE AND LAW OBSERVANCE

By WILLIAM E. GILROY

There is no deeper problem for thoughtful men and women than the problem of law observance with consideration not only to its practical side, but of the philosophy and relation to spirit, attitude and freedom which underlies it.

The amount of space that the New Testament gives to the problem, as it confronted the early Christians, makes the writing of Paul and others very valuable for their suggestiveness and guidance.

Perhaps it should be said that it we are to get full effect of such writings and teachings, we must take them as a whole. In this particular lesson, for instance, taken chiefly from Romans, 13 we have an early statement of Paul's attitude toward law and government, which, I believe it could be shown, was considerably modified in his later life.

Paul was a colonial, born under the Roman empire and a citizen of that empire. It was no small thing to be a free-born Roman citizen and Paul valued the privilege and the responsibility very highly, as more than one passage shows.

As a man who had devoted his life to large plans and purpose Paul had an instinctive admiration for the Roman empire with its sweep of power and authority.

He evidently believed, also, that on the whole this authority was exercised for orderly ends, and he had a large measure of confidence in the sort of justice meted out by Rome.

Thus it was that when Paul found himself, under conditions of his own arrest, unable to get justice in the Palestinian courts, he appealed, as was his citizen's privilege, to Rome and to Caesar. Then came a period of disillusionment. Instead of finding prompt and just consideration in his case at Rome, he found himself held as a prisoner with delay in the process of justice and little means of real vindication.

The result is that in Paul's later writings — the epistles that came from the period of his imprisonment in Rome — there is a very different note. He is not so sure that "powers that be are ordained of God," but he speaks of them often as manifestations of the "princes of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience."

These discriminations are vital and important. The situation is considerably changed from that of Paul's day, in a democracy in which the ultimate rule and authority are in the hands of the people themselves.

We ought to have respect for our government and institutions, because they are of our own making, and if we cannot respect them, it is because we ought to be doing our own work and living our own lives of citizenship upon a more effective plane.

We should, however, remember that every breakdown of justice and of right, every misuse of power and every denial of rights and liberties to the citizen who is entitled to them, tends not to the strengthening but to the weakening of government.

The power of civil institutions in a democracy does not depend upon a spirit of subserviency, but upon a spirit of moral and righteous independence, which not only observes and obeys the law, but demands that these laws in themselves, and in their administration, shall be just and righteous.

The obligation resting upon the citizen in this connection is clear and plain. There can be no such thing as law and order where the sense of law and order is not strongly imbedded in the citizen and in the entire conception of citizenship. All the sanctions of moral and spiritual life support this high principle in relation to the state, and one cannot be a good Christian without being a good citizen.

Sidelights In News In Capital Of United States

By HERBERT PLUMMER

Washington — The stocky, gray-haired Illinoisan, Henry T. Rainey, Democratic floor leader in the House, would be placed in a very strategic position should his party be victorious in the November elections.

The 28 years or so Rainey has served in the house would enable him to strike out at three of the most important posts in the Congress.

He could hold on probably without any trouble to his leadership of the party in the House.

Now that Collier of Mississippi is out, the chairmanship of the powerful ways and means committee could be his if he wanted it.

And he is in a position to make a bid for the speakership.

RAINEY SAYS NOTHING.

If Rainey has any ambitions to be Speaker, in the event of a democratic victory next month, he has said little about it. Democrats in recent times have shown a preference for promoting their floor leaders in this way. Jack Garber was floor leader before he became Speaker.

The situation in the 73rd Congress, however, with the democrats in control, would be a different story from that of 72nd when "Cactus" Jack took over the gavel.

Then, months beforehand, it was generally agreed that Garner would be the Speaker. Democrats were behind him almost to a man in conceding that he had earned his right to the job. He was their unanimous choice in the balloting. Rainey hardly can expect anything like that.

OTHERS IN LINE.

For one thing, perhaps, he has not been party leader long enough to command such unanimity of support as did Garner. Then, too, there would be a lot of democrats wanting that job if Garner moved over as President of the Senate.

There's Sam Rayburn of Texas, the man who managed Garner's pre-convention campaign. McDuffie of Alabama, the democratic whip now, would have to be considered also.

And there are many others—some already out for the job.

Our dry goods merchants have ads that are well worth studying. Read them.

Daily Health Talk

"When one goes to a store to buy a definite article the statement is frequently made by the clerk, 'We do not have that in stock, but here is something just as good.' In some instances the substituted merchandise turns out to be quite serviceable and of the same quality as that originally desired. But most emphatically the just-as-good assumption does not apply to artificial teeth," states Dr. Ralph Burkhardt of the state Health Department's dental section.

"Be that as it may, 'satisfied customers' are often heard to remark that their plates are just as good as their real teeth ever dared to be. Don't believe them. They are either unreasonably enthusiastic or are deliberately misstating the facts.

"Unfortunately such assertions have influenced hundreds of persons, unwilling to think for themselves, to become more or less careless with their mouths. Resting on the 'false' security of artificial teeth, they did not consider it to be very much worth their while to bother with the natural ones. Store teeth would be all right!

"Well, store teeth are all right when one is absolutely driven through necessity to employ them. Moreover, they can be good-looking. And while they can do their job fairly well, they can never approach the efficiency of the real thing. For example, the mature normal teeth in a normal jaw can exert 250 pounds of pressure. The best of the artificial denture can do is 30 to 60 pounds.

"And then again, there is the obvious matter of learning how to use the plates. There is very much more to it indeed than having the poor teeth out and putting the plates in. A whole new chewing process must be learned. Persistent and intelligent manipulation will be required, perhaps over a period of many months, before even moderately satisfactory results can be obtained.

"It follows that one should be no more indifferent about losing all his teeth than he should be about losing an arm or leg. Artificial teeth only are good when you can't get away from them. Proper daily dental care will prevent such a situation."

THE STORY OF RICKETS
While rickets has been known to medicine for more than a century, our knowledge of its causation, its prevention and treatment, is only of recent origin.

A little more than 40 years ago it was shown that rickets is a seasonal disease as well as one of peculiar geographic distribution.

In the tropics, where the diet is likely to be poor, rickets is rare, while in the industrial cities of northern Europe and America, rickets is relatively common.

From this observation two different conclusions were drawn. One maintained that rickets is essentially due to a faulty diet; the other maintained it due to inadequate exposure to the sun.

In 1912 an interesting experiment was performed to determine which of these theories on the causation of rickets was correct.

Of two puppies suckled by the mother, one was in the sunlight all the day, while the other was kept in absolute darkness.

After six weeks the puppies were studied and it was found that the puppy kept in the sun had about one-third as much more calcium and phosphorus deposited in its bones than had the one that was kept in total darkness. This seemed to prove that rickets was due to lack of sunlight.

A few years thereafter, however, it was demonstrated by Mellanby of England that feeding puppies on a diet which contained cod liver oil, egg yolk or butter, rickets could be prevented in the animal, even when it was insufficiently exposed to light.

This experiment seemed to prove that rickets was due to a dietary fault, rather than to inadequate exposure to sunlight.

At this point the chemists stepped in and undertook to determine the nature of the factor in cod liver oil, egg yolk or butter which was effective in preventing rickets.

Ultimately, the chemists were successful in isolating what is today known as vitamin D, and in establishing that this is the potent agent.

Curtis Defended Republican Tariff

Lima, Ohio, Oct. 27—(AP)—The Republican tariff was described by Vice President Curtis in an address last night as an important protection for American farmers.

The Vice-President, seeking re-election, spoke before a capacity crowd in Memorial Hall which seats 4,000 persons.

Although the United States is a large exporter of wheat, Curtis said, it needs Republican protective tariffs.

THREE GUESSES

President Orders Cruelty Charges

Washington, Oct. 27—(AP)—At President Hoover's direction, a special commission formed to sift charges of the mistreatment of Negro laborers by private contractors doing the government's flood control work on the lower Mississippi river.

Creation of the commission, consisting of three Negroes and one white man, was announced at the White House last night. Its inquiry will be directed at charges similar to those already under investigation by Army Engineers.

EAGLES LODGE FINED
Peoria, Ill., Oct. 27—(AP)—Three trustees of the Moline Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, pleaded guilty in Federal Court here yesterday to sale of beer. The club rooms were raided by Federal agents several weeks ago and the court decree restrained the lodge from further liquor law violations for one year under penalty of permanent padlocking. The defendants, Arthur Carlson, Arthur Johnson and Moses Ross, were fined $500 each.

If the DEMOCRATS Took Down the Farm Tariff Wall

Here's What Would Happen to Agriculture

CORN

The tariff on corn is 25 cents per bushel. Argentina is our chief competitor. The water freight rate from Buenos Aires to our east and west seaboard is less than one-third the rail rate from the surplus corn states to the same ports.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED
ARGENTINA WOULD HAVE AROUND 300 MILLION BUSHELS OF CORN TO UNLOAD ON OUR SEABOARDS AT PRICES FAR BELOW THE ACTUAL FREIGHT CHARGE PER BUSHEL FROM THE MIDDLE WEST TO THE SEABOARD.

BUTTER

We produce about 2 billion pounds of butter each year. Our chief competitors on the American market for butter have been Canada, New Zealand and the countries of northern Europe. This group practically controlled the butter market in New York prior to the passage of the Farm Tariff Act. Since the passage of this Act butter imports have fallen off to practically nothing.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED
CANADA, NEW ZEALAND, DENMARK, AND OTHER COUNTRIES WOULD AGAIN FLOOD OUR MARKETS WITH BUTTER.

The accepted definition of free trade is "Buy on the cheapest market and let the producer take care of himself."

This means if hogs can be produced cheaper in Canada, that American consumers would buy their pork products from Canada. It means if butter can be produced cheaper in New Zealand and shipped to this country in refrigerated ships at low water freight rates, then the American consumer would buy from New Zealand and let the American farmer take care of himself.

It means that the entire output of the American farms would be in open competition with the cheapest markets, the low costs of production on cheap lands, by cheap labor, of any nation upon the earth.

FLAX

We have a 62 cents per bushel tariff on flax-seed. Flaxseed at Minneapolis and Duluth is selling at $1.10 per bushel. The Winnipeg market for flax is 72½ cents per bushel. The Argentine price for flax is 62 cents per bushel.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED
CANADA AND ARGENTINA WOULD DUMP THEIR FLAX ON OUR MARKETS FORCING OUR PRICES DOWN TO THEIR LEVELS.

It took the farmers 50 years to get full tariff recognition by the Congress of the United States. It has been in effect about two years and has demonstrated its effectiveness. It would take the Democratic party 50 minutes, if they were in control, to demolish the Farm Tariff.

EGGS

On June first the top price for standard eggs on the New York market was 14½ cents. On September thirtieth the same grades sold on the New York market for 28 cents, an increase of nearly 100 per cent. We have a tariff of 10 cents per dozen on eggs. This keeps Canadian eggs off the eastern markets.

We also have a 27 cents per pound rate on dried eggs. Dried eggs are used commercially by food product manufacturing concerns. China furnished an average of 56 million dozen eggs in powdered form, annually, prior to the enactment of the Farm Tariff. This 27 cent rate stopped imports from China.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED
CHINA AND CANADA WOULD AGAIN INVADE OUR MARKET AND DESTROY PRICES.

PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER

CATTLE

On the south bank of the Rio Grande there are 2 million cattle. The price per hundred weight is $2.50.

On the north bank of the Rio Grande the price is $4.50 per hundred.

IF THE TARIFF WALL OF $2.50 PER HUNDRED ON CATTLE WEIGHING LESS THAN 700 LBS. AND $3.00 PER HUNDRED ON CATTLE WEIGHING 700 LBS. OR MORE WERE REMOVED, THESE 2 MILLION MEXICAN CATTLE WOULD BE DRIVEN ONTO THE AMERICAN MARKETS, COMPLETELY DEMORALIZING OUR MARKETS AND PULLING OUR PRICES DOWN TO THE MEXICAN LEVEL.

HOGS

The Republican tariff of $2.00 per hundred, an increase of 300 per cent over the former schedule, is a stiff barrier against imports of Canadian hogs into our western and northwestern States. Canada practically controlled the pork market in Oregon and Washington on the west, and on the east furnished a large proportion of the pork products in the New York marketing area.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED, CANADA WOULD AGAIN SUPPLY THESE MARKETS AT THE EXPENSE OF THE AMERICAN FARMER.

FRESH CHILLED and FROZEN BEEF

The tariff rate is 6 cents per pound on fresh chilled and frozen beef. Before this tariff was established by the Republican party New Zealand sent us 55 per cent and Canada 45 per cent of our imports of fresh chilled and frozen beef. Since this rate went into effect imports of this beef have practically disappeared from the American markets.

IF THIS TARIFF WERE REMOVED, NEW ZEALAND AND CANADA WOULD AGAIN TAKE OUR MARKET. EVERY BEEF CARCASS SHIPPED INTO THIS COUNTRY WOULD DISPLACE THAT MUCH BEEF FROM THE AMERICAN FARMERS.

FRESH PORK

The rate on fresh pork is 2½ cents per pound. Since this rate became effective in June, 1930, imports of fresh pork from Canada into the Dakotas, Minnesota, Oregon and Washington have dropped to less than 5 per cent of the total imports prior to the passage of this Act.

IF THE TARIFF WERE REMOVED ON FRESH PORK THE CANADIAN FARMERS WOULD BE IN OPEN COMPETITION WITH THE AMERICAN FARMERS ON OUR OWN MARKETS.

WOOL

In every port in the world docks are piled high with bales of wool; warehouses are jammed with wheat and other types of small grain; hides and pork products, corn and cattle are all waiting to be loaded as ballast in returning ships to be dumped onto the American markets if the tariff is removed as the Democrats promise it shall be.

SMITH REVEALS DISSATISFACTION WITH CONVENTION

But He Says Democrats Will Settle Their Own Troubles

Boston, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Massachusetts Democrats turned out in a cheering throng last night to hear Alfred E. Smith urge the "unqualified, full and complete support of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Again, just before he closed, he said: "The salvation of the country in this crisis x x x lies in the success of the Democratic ticket under the leadership of Frank Roosevelt and John Garner."

The crowd of 15,000 in the Boston arena vigorously applauded his criticisms of President Hoover and his attacks on administration policies. It laughed as he greeted with "suspicion" the "solicitude of Senator Moses" after his (Smith's) defeat at the Chicago convention.

Smith said he felt he had come "home"; that his audience was "sitting around his table," and he said he was going "to be pretty frank."

Will Settle Own Troubles

"I was not satisfied with that Chicago convention," he said. "And I know that you were not satisfied with it. But listen, we'll settle these troubles in our party. We don't want any advice, and above everything else we want x x x sympathy from Senator Moses or his Republican cohorts."

He blamed Senator Borah for "President Hoover's big mistake—an extraordinary session for farm relief," and he attacked the foreign policy of the administration.

"The higher administrative officers in Washington," he said, "constantly refer to the plight of our neighbors abroad—and when they were sinking and called for a life preserver the national administration threw them an anchor."

He lingered in Boston this morning and was scheduled to leave at noon for Albany.

ROOSEVELT TO GO TO BOSTON FOR ADDRESS

Spent Today Considering Relief Work In His Own State

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(AP)—With the election ten days away, Governor Roosevelt again turned his back on the national campaign today to wrangle with the relief problem in his own state.

Another conference with state officers and legislative leaders on the best way to continue the state unemployment relief the rest of the year in spite of dwindling funds occupied his attention.

The conference finished, he will study with his personal advisers plans for the eastern campaign to wind up his quest for the Presidency. This will take him away from Albany at noon Saturday on a swing through New England.

The Governor appeared fresh and his voice fully recovered when he gave two short radio talks last night. Speaking from his study in the Executive Mansion to a group of state and screen stars in New York, he predicted that "under the leadership of a militant, vital, liberal democracy, we are headed for better days."

In another brief talk he sent his greetings to the American-Greek Democratic Association of New York.

EXPECTANT LIFE OF THE SUN MAY BE SHORTENED

Scientists' Report Of Smithsonian Institute Says

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A possibility that the sun's life—and therefore life on the earth it warms—may be much shorter than usually supposed, was suggested today in the annual report of the Smithsonian Institution.

An article by Theodore Dunham, Jr., said astronomical estimates placing the length of the sun's life in the neighborhood of thousands of millions of years may prove too great.

The secret of the sun's real age, Dunham explained, depends on the source of its enormous supplies of heat and light. He said that if this light and heat comes from the building up of new matter inside the sun, the life of the sun or any other star must be one hundredth as long as otherwise estimated.

"Geologists tell us," Dunham said, "that the earth must have been here for at least a thousand million years. But there are various astronomical arguments which lead us to believe that the stars have ages even a thousand times as great as this."

"No source of energy with which we are familiar could provide so much heat for so long a time. Simple cooling would last only a short time. The burning of hydrogen and oxygen would not last the sun more than one tenth of the lifetime of our earth."

"Only two possibilities remain. The first is that matter itself is being transformed into radiant energy deep in the stars. If this is the source of the sun's heat x x x the sun could well stand this loss and go on shining for several million million years to come."

"The other possibility is that the stars were once composed entirely of hydrogen and that the atoms of hydrogen are uniting to build up the heavier atoms of other elements x x x If this is the source of stellar energy the life of a star is 100 times shorter than if there were complete annihilation of matter."

TREASURER OF UNITED STATES IS FOR HOOVER

Says His Plans Saved the Nation In Its Most Violent Crisis

Centralia, Oct 27.—(AP)—Declaring President Hoover had laid the foundation for business recovery, W. O. Woods, Treasurer of the United States, in an address at Lakeside, near here, last night stated it would be the "height of folly to discard the President's wisdom at this time and substitute other plans that have but vague theory as a base."

The United States Treasurer stated that unless the President was re-elected, "business recovery would be postponed for a year." It would require that much time, he said to put new theories into practice.

The speaker said the action of President Hoover in bringing about the moratorium on War debts and the organization last January of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had stopped a panic and is now restoring confidence in business throughout the United States.

Most Violent Storm
"The President's wisdom," he said, "has protected American citizens against the most violent storm the world ever saw. We are safely through that as result. The plans he has made have the sanction of law and they have produced a solid foundation for business."

"A continuation of the use of the sensible plans and methods that are now getting well underway is clearly in the interest of the nation. It would be the height of folly to discard the President's wisdom at this time and attempt to substitute other plans that have but vague theory as a base."

Funds Reappearing
"Bank runs have stopped; most hoarded funds are reappearing; credit is easing and re-employment is increasing."

"Our currency is sound, for we have complete protection against gold withdrawal. Thus stability of our financial system is assured."

"Our president has laid the foundation for business recovery. It is recovering and it seems obvious that the only thing that can retard it would be to repudiate the plan."

"In the light of the reasons why they should be sanctioned, it seems obvious that our President should be and that he will be re-elected, and carry the program through to completion."

REPLIES TO F. D.

Long Beach, Calif. Oct. 27.—(AP)—Replying to the charge of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic presidential nominee, that the 1930 tariff act was "a cynical and pitiless fraud," Arthur M. Hyde, Secretary of Agriculture, said in an address for delivery at a mass meeting here today that in 1931 dutiable imports declined 33 per cent and those admitted free dropped but 7 per cent.

"In other words," the Secretary said, "7 per cent of the decline in agriculture imports was due to the depression and the balance of the 33 per cent decline in dutiable agriculture imports was due to the protection of the tariff."

He tells here the surprising tale of Abiama and his oscilloclast; of the varied cults of faith healing that are to be found in our land; of the true inwardness of chiropractic "science"; of the origin of osteopathy, and its scientific standing; of the dozen-and-one varieties of naturopaths; of the diet faddists, the physical culture faddists, the anti-visceralists and the rejuvenationists and so on, until your brain spins with astonishment.

Always, of course, he is authoritative. He is so to speak, the official mouthpiece of medical science; and he is a very readable one and an extremely valuable one.

ASSAULTS QUACKS AND FADISTS IN MEDICAL FIELD

Medical quackery is a hardy growth. The freakish nostrums and superstitions of the dark ages have pretty well vanished, to be sure, but there are plenty of modern imbecilities to take their place.

For the human being craves miracles, and since he often fails to understand the real miracles which medical science has accomplished, he goes thirsting after the pseudo-miracles of the fakers; and there are plenty of fakers, these days, to take care of him.

Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, and author of a daily health column for this newspaper, discusses all of these things in "Fads and Quackery in Healing," a new book which ought to have a place in every home.

It is Dr. Fishbein's delight to house guests last week Rev. and Mrs. Plumley and daughter Mrs. Ruth Renneau and Mrs. Renneau's son, Bobby, all of Red Key, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Vaughan and daughter Edith and Mrs. David Braman went to Leland Sunday to the opening of a new funeral home owned by Jake Thornton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fonken of Forreston, returned to their home Sunday after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Grissom and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwards entertained Mrs. Edwards' niece, Mrs. Oscar Weidman, and son Kenneth over the week end. Mr. Weidman and Mrs. Cora Woodmoor to the Edwards home on Sunday and spent the day, afterwards returning to their home.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwards visited last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edwards near Mt. Carroll.

Mrs. Myrtle Bates has been ill with tonsillitis for two weeks. The Treadwells are quarantined with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Tuttle Sr. spent several days at the home of her sister in Sublette.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Compton spent Monday afternoon in Rock Falls.

Edward Rosecrans of Dixon was a business caller here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Vaupel of Ashton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barlow Tuesday.

Mrs. Peter O'Toole has gone to Chicago to spend the winter with her daughter.

The Methodist church congregation is giving a reception at the church on Thursday evening for their pastor Rev. Earl Edwards who has been returned to Amboy for the coming year.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Reid on Jefferson Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Vaughan and daughter Edith and Mrs. David Braman went to Leland Sunday to the opening of a new funeral home owned by Jake Thornton.

Japanese-Russian Conference Near

Tokyo, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The Foreign Office said today that Yosuke Matsukawa, the Chief of Japan's defense staff before the League of Nations, would probably confer with Russian authorities in Moscow on the Manchurian issue early in November.

It was understood M. Matsukawa would discuss Manchuria with L. M. Karakhan, Soviet Foreign Commissar, but beyond the fact that the talks would be "general," there was no hint of what they would involve.

The Foreign Office stressed, however, that M. Matsukawa was by no means empowered to discuss a non-aggression pact between the two countries, or to otherwise represent the Japanese government in Moscow.

AUSTRIA URGES PEACE
On Oct. 28, 1918, Austria-Hungary dispatched another note to President Wilson, urgently asking that peace negotiations be entered into without awaiting the outcome of exchanges with Germany.

The government of Vienna conceded all rights asked for the Czechoslovaks and Jugoslavs, and asked that the president launch overtures with the Allied governments with a view of halting hostilities on all Austro-Hungarian fronts immediately.

ASSAULTS QUACKS AND FADISTS IN MEDICAL FIELD

Medical quackery is a hardy growth.

The freakish nostrums and superstitions of the dark ages have pretty well vanished, to be sure, but there are plenty of modern imbecilities to take their place.

For the human being craves miracles, and since he often fails to understand the real miracles which medical science has accomplished, he goes thirsting after the pseudo-miracles of the fakers; and there are plenty of fakers, these days, to take care of him.

FORMER PASTOR OF DIXON M. E. CHURCH CALLED

Dr. O. H. Cessna Passed Away At Ames, Iowa Last Saturday

Dr. Orange Howard Cessna, for the past 30 years chaplain of Iowa State College, at Ames, Iowa, who was pastor of the Dixon Methodist Episcopal church for five years from 1893 to 1898, died suddenly of heart trouble at his office at the college last Saturday morning, while dictating letters to his ste- nographer, local friends learned today. Funeral services were held at the college Tuesday afternoon with burial in the College cemetery.

Born in Ohio

Dr. Cessna was born near Ken- ton, Ohio, July 31, 1852, the son of Jonathan and Elizabeth Mathews Cessna. When he was 4 years old the family came to Nevada, Iowa, in a covered wagon, and his father took up a homestead there.

Dr. Cessna attended the Nevada school, and when he was 16 enrolled in 1868 in the first class at Iowa State College.

During the winter months, when a four-month vacation was in vogue, Dr. Cessna taught school to pay for his own education. During the school year he milked cows to four hours a day.

The invitation to the foreign group to ride with Il Duce when he reviews the parade set a new Fascist precedent. The Americans invited were Col. E. R. Warren McCabe, Military Attaché; Capt. Macmillan Milne, Naval Attaché; Capt. Francis M. Brady, Assistant Military Attaché; and Lieut. Com- mander Frederick W. Pennoyer, Jr., Assistant Naval Attaché.

The veterans' parade was ar- ranged to inaugurate the new "highway of the hills" from Venezia Square, facing the Premier's office to the Coliseum.

Other events included inaugurations of new public works, swear- ing in of new Fascists, the reading of Mussolini's message in every community of the nation, band concerts, and ringing of bells for a half hour during the fore- noon.

Premier Mussolini arranged to distribute the reconstructed Piazza Venezia, the principal square in Rome.

TOMORROW'S IS FINAL LEAGUE GAME IN DIXON

Championship Of N. C. Conference Stake At Dixon Field

By DON HILLIKER

To determine the 1932 North Central champions Dixon and DeKalb meet in a two-game entertainment on the Dixon field tomorrow afternoon, the party to get under way at 1:15 o'clock. It will be the last opportunity for fans to see a league game on the local field this year. Dixon has one more home engagement in its remaining five contests.

Dixon is all primed for the big game of the season. With the defense of last fall's well-earned crown at stake the boys are keyed to high hopes of halting the DeKalb undefeated string of five wins thus far. Also in the process of protection is the Dixon streak of twelve games in which they have not been scored upon. Two ties, nine wins, and another deadlock have been inserted in the books and which local enthusiasts are hoping and expecting will be resumed in a vicious character Saturday p.m.

Another ideal at which the Dixon crew is shooting is to be the first league participant to repeat with two successive championships. In the initial season of the conference, 1929, Rochelle copped but later forfeited to Dixon, DeKalb and then Dixon followed with winners.

In the series with DeKalb since the origin of the N. C. I. C. Dixon leads, two victories to one. In 1929 the first local win was by 7-0; 1930 De Kalb reversed it with a 13-0 count; last year Dixon copped with a 12-6 score.

— Trying for the second attempt, the loudspeaker system will be in operation. The suggestion of the Kiwanis Club is to be followed out in the two home double headers on the schedule and, if proved satisfactory, will be a regular feature next season.

Plans for a capacity crowd are complete with the championships to be decided. The B team winner will be the minor North Central titleholder and likewise will be the first-string victor. Probable line-ups:

Dixon		DeKalb
Strong	le	Wheeler	Johnson
Daniels, Kellar	lt	Wheeler	(c)
Crabtree (capt.)	lg	Larson
F. Kennedy	c	Kestila
Bates	rg	Tolf

Dixon Harriers To Run At Janesville

The Dixon high school cross country team has been entered in Country run to be held at Janesville, Wis., starting at 10 o'clock in the morning, November 19, over a sporty two-mile course, it was announced today. The event is said to be the largest high school run schedule for the central west this season.

To date the following schools have entered the second annual run at Janesville: Milwaukee, east; Milwaukee, south; Milwaukee, west; Bay View, Milwaukee; Fort Atkinson, Janesville, Wis.; Rockford and Dixon, Ill. The meet last year was won by the East Milwaukee high school with the South Milwaukee team finishing second.

Business Men To Play Volley Ball

The Dixon business men's volleyball schedule will start next Wednesday, November 2 at the Dixon high school gymnasium. All who are interested in the game and who desire to become affiliated with the team in the league are urged to attend the meeting, or inform A. M. Rawls, who is in charge of the class, by calling Y 617. The schedule of play during the winter months has been arranged as follows:

Monday—5 to 6:30 P.M.

Wednesday—5:45 to 7:15 P.M.

Saturday—5 to 6:30 P.M.

This affords an excellent opportunity for those desiring regular exercise and at the same time, plenty of fun throughout the winter months.

Grins From The Gridiron

By O. D. "RED" SEVERANCE
To put it mildly, Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern was very disgusted.

Instead of a "breather" he had counted upon to break the strain of a terrific schedule, the University of California, at Los Angeles had played the Northwestern second team off its feet in the first quarter and forced him to rush his varsity into the game.

After breaking up a U. C. L. A. drive on the seven yard line the varsity had swept down the field for a touchdown and immediately had started playing half-hearted "saving ourselves" football.

Apparently convinced a 7-0 lead could never be overtaken, the team was growing more careless with every play. Ball-carriers were being stopped by their own interference.

And, like a sore thumb, "Pug" Rentner, brilliant Northwestern backfield ace, was standing out as the chief offender starting out on end runs like a truck horse, was being tackled behind the line repeatedly.

Finally Coach Hanley's patience reached the limit of endurance. Jumping to his feet as Rentner made another blunder, he pointed an angry finger at Luke Fossier, backfield substitute, sitting on the bench.

"Get in there," he cried, "and take that fathead's place."

Headgear in hand, Fossier took a step toward the gridiron, then turned back. "Say coach," he asked in a puzzled tone, "which fathead?"

Do You Remember?

One Year Ago Today—In their 26th annual football battle, South Carolina beat Citadel, in a game scheduled at Columbia, S. C., 26-7. Major league all-stars on trip to Orient arrived at Tokio.

Five Years Ago Today—Indiana went east to engage John Harvard in a football game and left at the tail end of a 26-6 score. Nebraska evened the score for the west by beating Syracuse 21-0 at Lincoln. Notre Dame beat George Tech 26-7.

Ten Years Ago Today—Bennett Hill won the 100-mile automobile championship classic at Colta, Calif. speedway. His time was 52 minutes 38 seconds.

Dixon Hunters In Considerate Humor

Considerately, according to Dave Gardner, leaving 10,000 ducks behind them in the Nebraska wilds, Paul Fry, Dr. McCoy, Gardner, Frank Villiger and George Van Nuyts brought only 120 ducks and eighteen pheasants home with them on their return, Wednesday night, from a 1600-mile hunting trip.

Chaplin Won Suit
To Keep His Sons
Out Of The Movies

Los Angeles, Oct. 27—(AP)—A wistful plea against exploitation of his children in the movies, where his own fame and fortune were founded, has won for Charles Chaplin another victory in his contest against the plans of the mother of his two sons, Lita Grey Chaplin, to place them before the film camera.

Mrs. Chaplin was denied the right to make a movie contract for Charles, Jr., 7 and Sidney Earl, 6, when she appeared yesterday in Superior Court. The comedian's former wife sought such right by an effort to abrogate a previous decision in favor of the actor, which inserted in their 1927 divorce decree a clause that both parents must consent before the boys could be employed.

"I want the children to lead normal, happy lives; I don't want them to be exploited," Chaplin testified.

HELIUM FOR NAVY

Lakehurst, N. J.—The U. S. Navy now has two of the largest high-pressure helium compressors ever built. One is installed at the Naval Air Station here, and the other is mounted on special railway car. The latter can be shipped to various helium supply stations, be filled with the gas, and depart for any location of a navy dirigible or blimp. Its headquarters are at Amarillo, Texas.

By WILLIAM BRAUCHER

The Columbia University band has become the subject of one of those collegiate upsets—or perhaps the word is "discords"—that seem to break out at stated intervals.

The next task to be taken up by the Carnegie Foundation, which exposed football subsidization two years ago, should be investigation of tramp musicians in the college band.

PARENTS—

There you are, and also see what is likely to happen to little Junior if he persists in his piccolo playing! You may be raising your own son to become a wandering minstrel, traveling from college band to college band.

THE AWFUL TRUTH—

Following the breath-taking charge that there were "ringers" in the Columbia band, that is, players were not bona fide students, the university authorities went right to the bottom of the thing with the following result, gleaned from the pages of the Columbia Spectator:

"The Columbia University band will henceforth be a strictly university organization. Representatives of other institutions are barred from its ranks, and members are required to submit eligibility blanks testifying to their affiliation with the university, according to a resolution passed last night by the King's Crown Board of Governors.

"Simultaneous with this newly-adopted policy, a measure was promulgated authorizing the board to inquire into the status of the university orchestra with a view to determining whether its membership shall be governed by the same rules as those applying to university band.

CARD INDEX FOR TOOTERS—

"The text of the resolution on the band follows:

"That members of the band shall be required to submit eligibility blanks certifying to their affiliation with the university.

"It is understood that graduate students enrolled in the band will not be forced to meet academic standards imposed in the regulations on those registered in college, but merely must give evidence of their attendance at the university.

"Earlier in the day, Harvard's Simonot, director of the organization, denied that he had changed his stand on the issue, and said that he saw no reason for taking action to change the university's policy toward the band.

CHICAGO STANDS TO GAIN GROUND AGAINST ILLINI

Figure To Defeat Zup- pke's Outfit And Better Record

Chicago, Oct. 28—(AP)—Of the Western Conference's select group of undefeated teams, only Chicago stands to gain or lose ground in the championship race tomorrow.

The Maroons, victorious over Indiana in their only Big Ten game this season, will tackle Illinois' long overduel eleven, while Michigan and Purdue, the other members of the undefeated club, engage inter-sectional opponents.

The Wolverines will entertain Princeton's tiger, and Purdue will give New York a look at its great running attack against New York University.

Two other conference games adorn the bill and in both, the difference between good and bad seasons, will be partly determined

Northwestern, with a victory, and tie, will make its big effort to get into the victory column,

Minnesota, which has a victory and a defeat for its record, at Columbus.

Iowa will get into action ahead of the other Big Ten teams, meeting

George Washington at Washington, D. C., tonight, and Indiana will play an inter-sectional contest with Mississippi State at Bloomington.

Even A. A. Stagg figures Chicago to beat Illinois, and a victory for the Illini would rank as the biggest upset of the campaign.

Ohio State and Wisconsin stack up even with the Buckeyes having whatever advantage there is in playing at home.

The Badgers have been harassed by losses through injuries and ineligibility, but Ohio also has suffered from casualties.

Minnesota will be close to full strength against Northwestern and will need to be.

The Wildcats left yesterday for Minneapolis fully rested from their terrific battle with Purdue, and another rousing battle between these rivals appears certain.

Michigan does not figure to have more than an ordinary amount of trouble with Princeton and Indiana, having regained its poise after losing to Chicago, probably will give the conference another inter-sectional victory.

It is about due to get off the touchdown-a-game standard and

Iowa is hopeful of helping to give the Big Ten a clear record for the

Kentucky U. Tries Out Voodoo Rites

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 28—(AP)—Some sports enthusiasts use rabbits' feet for luck, but in Kentucky, voodoo incantations have entered football. Three afternoons this week, six huge Negroes garbed in long white robes and carrying a black coffin, performed weird sorcery on the University of Kentucky playing field.

The voodoo priests conducted mystic rites near the goal posts, designed to bewitch the goals so that the Alabama players will be unable to cross them Saturday. The coffin piled high with flowers, contained
